

School Based Apprenticeships & Traineeships

Jump-start your career...

with a school-based apprenticeship or traineeship

A school-based apprenticeship or traineeship allows you to build an employment history before you even leave school. This can give you a head start with workplace knowledge and skills that can really take you places.

Once you have finished school, whether you enter the workforce straight away or go on to university, your school-based apprenticeship or traineeship gives you the jump-start towards a successful and rewarding career!

How it works

School-based apprenticeships and traineeships (SATs) allow high school students, generally in Years 10, 11 or 12, to work for an employer and train towards a recognised qualification, while still completing their secondary schooling.

Upon approval from your school, your employment and training forms part of your normal school timetable.

Employers are required to provide you with a minimum of 375 hours (50 days)– or 600 hours (80 days) for electrotechnology industry – of paid employment over each 12 month period of the training contract. Over each 3-month period, as a general guide, you will work a minimum of 7.5 hours a week, being either a full day or split shifts.

A SAT will let you go places, whether that's full time work, a trade career, university, TAFE or other training pathways.

With a school-based apprenticeship or traineeship you can:

- Create a pathway from school straight into work or a trade
- Gain a nationally recognised qualification upon successful completion
- Obtain real work-life skills and knowledge
- Earn while you learn
- Obtain an employment history, with references for your resume
- Achieve credits towards your Queensland Certificate of Education (QCE)
- Build your confidence and communication skills

“

My goal is to turn my Commercial Cookery apprenticeship into a career path that will allow me to travel the world.

JULIA WALKER

Apprentice Commercial Cookery

Frequently Asked Questions

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN APPRENTICESHIPS AND TRAINEESHIPS?

A: An apprenticeship usually relates to a trade, eg electrician, hairdresser, chef, plumber or carpenter, etc. A traineeship generally relates to industries that don't need a trade certificate, eg business, retail, hospitality and more.

IN A NUTSHELL, WHAT'S A SCHOOL-BASED APPRENTICESHIP OR TRAINEESHIP?

A: A school-based apprenticeship or traineeship (SAT) lets you work as a paid employee while training on the job, and whilst completing your Year 10, 11 or 12 studies. You are also working towards a nationally recognised qualification. Completion of your apprenticeship or traineeship will reward you with QCE points.

WILL I BE ELIGIBLE?

A: You will need to still be at school to qualify and be an Australian Citizen, New Zealand passport holder or holder of a visa which allows you to work in Australia. You will need to have the ability to work a minimum of 50 days a year where your employment and training will impact your school timetable in some way.

HOW MUCH DO I GET PAID?

A: This depends on your qualification and the award which your employer is required to pay you under. You can find pay rates and information on minimum conditions on the Fairwork website - www.fairwork.gov.au/pay.

Financial assistance may also be available to you or your employer, subject to eligibility. BUSY At Work can provide further information - just call 13 28 79.

WHAT IF I FINISH SCHOOL BEFORE MY APPRENTICESHIP OR TRAINEESHIP IS COMPLETED?

A: You can continue with your apprenticeship or traineeship once you leave school, either in a full time or part time capacity, depending on your employer.

HOW LONG DOES A SCHOOL-BASED APPRENTICESHIP OR TRAINEESHIP TAKE?

A: A full-time traineeship can take between 12 – 24 months. A full-time apprenticeship is generally 36 – 48 months. School-based apprenticeships and traineeships may take longer, depending on the qualification you have chosen, how you apply yourself and how quickly you complete the required competencies.

HOW DOES THE SCHOOL HELP?

A: You will need your school's permission first. Most students are eligible and it's best to seek advice and approval from your Guidance Counsellor or Careers Advisor. The school will then work together with you, your parents, your employer and the training provider to assist with any support you need.

WHICH TRAINING PROVIDER DO I CHOOSE?

A: You can choose a public institution (like TAFE) or from a range of private Registered Training Organisations who offer the qualification you want. The training provider is responsible for developing your training plan and delivering and assessing your formal training.

HOW DOES BUSY AT WORK ASSIST?

A: As a service provider contracted by the government under the Australian Apprenticeship Support Network, BUSY At Work provide support and information to you, your employer and your school. We can also assist you to find a suitable employer in the industry of your choice, guidance in selecting a training provider, assistance with claiming any eligible financial incentives, mentoring support if needed and more. To find out more go to www.busyatwork.com.au

CHILD SAFETY AND WELLBEING

The BUSY Group is an organisation that puts the best interests of children and young people first by adhering to the Child Safety Organisation National Principles. A copy of our Child Safety and Wellbeing policy can be found at www.busyatwork.com.au/policies/

Tips for Success!

When considering a school-based apprenticeship or traineeship make sure you:

- ✓ Speak to a VET Coordinator, Careers Advisor or Guidance Counsellor at school.
- ✓ Contact BUSY At Work to answer any questions you may have and to find out how we can assist.
- ✓ We can provide assistance with career advice, preparing a resume, finding a suitable employer, signing you up to a school-based apprenticeship or traineeship - and more.
- ✓ Be proactive and also check out your school notice board for jobs that may be advertised or you can also find school-based positions on www.apprenticeshipcentral.com.au
- ✓ When you get to interview stage, dress neatly and for the occasion. Be yourself and smile - first impressions count!
- ✓ Once you have started your apprenticeship or traineeship, if you have any issues or questions, contact BUSY At Work, we're here to help and can offer mentoring, advice and other ongoing support.

“

When I started my school-based traineeship I never dreamed that it would lead to me becoming a business owner. This opportunity has set me up for life!

AARON THIESS

Former school-based trainee,
Cleaning Operations.

There's a BUSY At Work office near you.

🖥️ busyatwork.com.au

☎️ 13 BUSY (13 28 79)

• Our National Coverage

A U S T R A L I A N
A P P R E N T I C E S H I P
S U P P O R T N E T W O R K
An Australian Government Initiative

BUSY At Work is contracted by the Australian Government Department of Education, Skills and Employment to administer the Australian Apprenticeships Incentive Program. BUSY At Work has made every effort to ensure the accuracy of this information at the time of printing. Eligibility criteria applies to all Australian Apprenticeships and Traineeships. For more information please contact BUSY At Work on 13 28 79. BUSY At Work is a trading division of The BUSY Group Ltd (ABN 17 575 363 535 / ACN 168 870 326) © July 2015.