

Information for Apprentices & Employers

Skill-up for your career or grow your business with Australian
Apprenticeships and Traineeships

Future-proof for skills and business growth

with Australian Apprenticeships and Traineeships

An apprenticeship or traineeship is a great way to skill for a career, allowing you to earn while you learn on-the-job.

There are many ways an apprentice can benefit your business, strengthen your industry and make your working life easier.

At BUSY At Work, we make the whole process of hiring an apprentice or trainee easy, whether upskilling an existing employee or hiring a new employee for your business.

BENEFITS TO YOUR BUSINESS

Hiring an apprentice or trainee is smart for your business in many ways:

Gain an extra pair of hands and increase your productivity

Ensure new talent is skilled for your industry and business

Subsidised wages with available government incentives (eligibility criteria applies)

Receive relevant and practical industry training for your employees and business

Your employees receive formal and recognised industry qualifications

Mentor and develop loyal and motivated workers

I cannot recommend BUSY At Work enough. Their services exceed expectation and the team is incredibly helpful and friendly. There isn't a job too big or small for BUSY At Work. They have made the process painless.

BUSY At Work is our first choice when it comes to apprenticeship and traineeship support.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS AN EMPLOYER

PAYMENT AND ENTITLEMENTS FOR YOUR APPRENTICE OR TRAINEE

- As an employer, your responsibilities to your apprentice or trainee are the same as to your current staff. This includes eligibility for general employment entitlements such as sick leave, annual leave, superannuation etc. Depending on your Award, you may also need to supply tools, uniforms and workers compensation cover. Government incentives are available for eligible apprentices and trainees to subsidise some of these costs. BUSY At Work can inform you about these incentives.
- From 1 January 2010, Modern Award rates were introduced to establish the minimum conditions for employers across Australia.
- You can find out more by contacting Fair Work on 13 13 94 or visit fairwork.gov.au.

ADDRESSING ANY ISSUES IN THE WORK-PLACE

- In the event your apprentice or trainee is experiencing any harassment, bullying or believe they are not receiving appropriate training, they need to immediately contact their assigned supervisor in your workplace. They can also contact the Fair Work Commission on fwc.gov.au.
- If the apprentice or trainee believes they are not receiving the appropriate form of training, they can contact the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training (DESBT).
- BUSY At Work can offer further support if needed and you, your apprentice or trainee are also encouraged to contact us if any questions or issues arise.

WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY

- Under the Australian Workplace Health and Safety law, your workplace is required to be a safe place for all workers and free from verbal, physical, sexual and racial abuse.
- Instructions regarding workplace health and safety must be given to your trainee or apprentice and they are required to follow these instructions.
- More information regarding workplace health and safety can be found at worksafe.qld.gov.au or phone 1300 362 128.

NATIONAL CODE OF GOOD PRACTICE

- The National Code of Good Practice has been developed to give both employers and Australian Apprentices and Trainees a clear understanding of each other's obligation and expectations. A copy of this code will be included in your induction kit provided by BUSY At Work.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. CAN YOU EXPLAIN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN AN APPRENTICESHIP AND A TRAINEESHIP?

A. In most cases, an apprenticeship relates to a trade industry qualification, for example carpentry, electrical, plumbing, cooking, hairdressing, automotive or engineering. Traineeships generally cover non-trade certificate qualifications for example retail, hospitality, business, IT, tourism and much more. There are hundreds of options to choose from and you can check these out in our A-Z Guide.

Q. CAN A CASUAL OR A SUB-CONTRACTOR BECOME AN APPRENTICE OR TRAINEE?

A. No. While engaged as a sub-contractor or casual employee, a person cannot be signed up as an apprentice or trainee. Your business will need to employ all apprentices or trainees under the required PAYG tax withholding, super and fringe benefits tax obligations.

Q. HOW LONG DOES AN APPRENTICESHIP OR TRAINEESHIP TAKE TO COMPLETE?

A. Full-time apprenticeships will take between 36 to 48 months, depending on the apprentice and how quickly they complete the competencies. An apprentice will undertake qualifications from Cert Level III to Advanced Diploma. Full-time traineeships will usually take between 12 and 24 months, undertaking qualifications from Cert Level II to Advanced Diploma. Recognition of prior learning, on the job learning and formal or informal experience can all contribute towards competency and completion of the qualifications.

Q. WHAT QUALIFICATIONS SHOULD MY APPRENTICE OR TRAINEE UNDERTAKE?

A. Choosing the correct qualifications depends on your business needs, the qualifications held by your industry and the prior skills of your prospective apprentice or trainee. BUSY At Work can assist you to make the right choice based on your needs. There are currently over 500 qualifications to choose from and you can find more information in our A-Z Guide. A helpful online resource can also be found at myfuture.gov.au.

Q. WHAT IS THE PAY RATE FOR AN APPRENTICE OR TRAINEE?

A. Pay rates for apprentices and trainees vary depending on industry, the qualification they are undertaking and the Award that your business employs staff under. You can find pay rates fairwork.gov.au or call 13 13 94.

Q. WHAT IS THE COST TO ME AND ARE THERE SUBSIDIES AVAILABLE?

A. Certain subsidies are available through the Queensland Government, and the Australian Government also offers a range of financial incentives - eligibility criteria applies. These may assist you to cover wages and training-related costs. BUSY At Work can provide further information and assist with subsidy claims for your business.

Q. WHICH TRAINING PROVIDER?

A. Choosing a suitable training provider is important and one of our consultants can assist by providing a list of suitable Registered Training Organisations for you and your apprentice or trainee to choose from.

The training provider develops the training plan, provides the formal training and assesses your apprentice or trainee for the duration of the training.

TAFE is a public provider but there are many private Registered Training Organisations as well, offering a range of industry qualifications. These are offered either as a fee-for-service basis or are government-funded.

Some important considerations when choosing a training provider:

- How much training input will my business need to provide to my apprentice or trainee during the course?
- When will the training occur and how will it be assessed?
- How often does the training provider visit and will they provide feedback?
- What assistance and other services can they provide?
- Is the qualification I have chosen funded? If not, what cost is involved?

BUSY At Work understands which qualifications and Registered Training Organisations are government-funded, and can put you in touch with suitable RTO's to discuss further details and specific costs.

Q. CAN I AMEND OR CANCEL THE TRAINING CONTRACT?

A. BUSY At Work can assist you if you would like to amend or cancel your apprentice's or trainee's contract information.

Q. ON COMPLETION OF THE TRAINING, WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

A. Once all required competencies have been completed, you will need to contact your training provider so that you (as the employer), the apprentice/trainee and your training provider can sign a completion agreement, stating that all training and assessment required under the training plan has been completed. The training provider then submits the signed agreement to the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training (DESBT).

Through BUSY At Work, we've had a number of current and completed apprentices. Support is excellent and we'll continue to partner with them to meet our employment needs.
