Eligibility criteria for Australian Apprenticeship Support Loans includes:

- You are an Australian citizen residing in Australia or a holder of a permanent visa;
- You are an Australian Apprentice working in priority occupations, including those in the non-trade occupations.
- Refer to the Australian Apprenticeship Priority List \(PDF\).

Eligible apprentices have access to loans totaling up to $24,492 over the course of the apprenticeship to assist with the expenses associated with living, learning and completing an apprenticeship. School-based and part-time apprentice payments will be paid at the same rate as full-time apprentices.

Apprentices can receive up to:

- $9,796 in the first year of their training (12 monthly payments of $816.41)
- $7,347 in the second year of their training (12 monthly payments of $612.31)
- $4,898 in the third year of their training (12 monthly payments of $408.20)
- $2,881 in the fourth year of their training (12 monthly payments of $204.10)

NEW MINIMUM PAYMENT THRESHOLD

Payments made to an apprentice through the AASL program are repayable through the taxation system when the minimum income threshold outlined in the Higher Education Support Act 2003 has been reached.

Under the minimum Higher Education Loan Program (HELP) repayment threshold (since 1 July 2023), AASL recipients will need to start repayments when they earn more than $51,550.

The HELP thresholds can be found at <https://www.studyassist.gov.au/paying-back-your-loan/loan-repayment>

Living Away From Home Allowance

Apprentices/Trainees undertaking a Certificate II or higher level qualification may be eligible for Living Away From Home Allowance if they have to move away from their parental/guardian home for the first time to commence or remain in an Australian Apprenticeship, or are homeless:

First Year	$77.17 p/w
Second Year	$38.59 p/w
